4) "From the Earth"

Mike best describes his work as contemporary and impressionistic, his focus and discipline for each piece is to create a composition that is strong and keeps the viewers eyes moving, never allowing the viewer to focus on just one spot. With the spontaneity that comes from letting the canvas serve as the palette, his love of color jumps from the canvas to create a look that brings a feeling of happiness. To see more work by Mike Savage, please visit SavArt Gallery.

15) High Note Malbec - 3 Liter

The velvety texture and deep flavor of the small juicy berries of High Note's Malbec grapes are distinctively influenced by the environment in which they are grown. Uco Valley vineyards, high in the Andes foothills of Mendoza, enjoy the perfect combination of elements for growing this unique varietal. Intense sunlight, cool temperatures and dry conditions allow for the fruit to slowly mature until handpicked for optimal flavor. The result is High Note's brilliant violet color and with intense, sweet spice on the palate balanced by notes of plums, cassis, blackberries, and black cherries. It is creamy, smooth, and ripe in the mouth with soft, round tannins and a long silky finish.

Donated By: Glazer's Midwest

Donated By: Jim and Julie Frickleton

Value: $140.00

91) 2008 Russian River Valley Pinot Noir 1.5L

This Russian River Valley Pinot Noir is pure, balanced, lush and focused. Bright, yet rich cherries are on the forefront with fresh ripe raspberries, which rest generously on the top of the tongue. The lingering finish wraps around your tongue and palate with focus and freshness.

Donated By: Kosta Browne
